Membership Enrollment

The Cleveland Heights Historical Society, established in 1983, is a state-chartered, 501(c)(3), not-for-profit historic preservation organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the diverse character and traditions of Cleveland Heights. Through its website, publications and programs, The Society encourages and facilitates greater knowledge, understanding and awareness of the heritage of Cleveland Heights. It serves as a civic link that illuminates the unique legacy that makes “The Heights” one of Greater Cleveland’s most interesting places.

Community initiatives of the Cleveland Heights Historical Society include:

- Developing greater community knowledge and understanding of the city’s progressive heritage.
- Researching the history of Cleveland Heights and its environs.
- Advancing the cause of historic preservation in The Heights.
